10 June 2022

Dear parents and carers,

On 4th and 5th July the children will be moving to their new classes for a morning with their new teacher and peers. These transition mornings will help to settle and reassure the children in their new surroundings, before the summer holidays.

The classes next year will be as follows:

Willow – Year R – Mrs Gridley (3 days) Mrs Wesley (2 days)

Elm – Year 1 & 2 – Miss Sutton

Oak – Year 3 – Miss Churchill

Hazel – Year 4 – Mrs Owen

Chestnut – Year 5 & 6 – Mr Santy

Sports Day, this year, will take place on Tuesday 12th July. We are inviting parents and carers to the event from 12:20pm. Between 12:20pm and 1:00pm you are welcome to bring a picnic lunch to eat outside with your child. However, if you are not attending until later, or unable to attend at all, then normal school lunches will be available on that day. The sporting events are due to start at approximately 1:15pm and run through until 3:00pm.

Kind regards,
Joseph Santy

Oak Class

On Wednesday, Oak Class Today learnt all about the West African drums known as Djembe. They learnt about their history, how they are made and how to play a number of different songs and rhymes. The day ended with a live performance in front of KS1 and EYFS.
